PAM AWARDS AT PULLMAN

Drawing architects to accolades

The Pullman Hotel, Bangsar was the site for the groundbreaking PAM Awards 2014 on 24 May. Hosted by the Malaysian Institute of Architects (PAM), the country's highest recognition for architectural excellence was attended by many in the industry, including the Malaysian Minister of Works, Datuk Haji Fadillah bin Yusof.

Five projects received the Gold Award for promoting responsible co-existence with nature through their works. These showstoppers were entries from:

- Ar Mastor bin Surat (Commercial – High Rise)
- WHBC Architects (Single Residential and Special Category)
- Ken Wong Architect (Multiple Residential – Low Rise and Interior Design) 1/2
